Imagining Our Main Street

City of Toronto Archives , series 372 s0372_ss0033_it0450

"Main street is the glory of Canada. If a community has no heart, it has no soul; and its heart should beat faster at the core.." Pierre Berton

The Cabbagetown Preservation Association presents the first in a series of talks.

Join us for an evening of discussion and exploration.

A panel of urban specialists with experience in main street development will show how neighbourhoods and cities have transformed their social and commercial core and how this happened.

Moderator:
Rick Merrill, CPA Board, The Planning Partnership
Panelists:
Mike Major, City of Toronto BIA Office
Michael Sraga, The Planning Partnership
Eric Turcotte, Urban Strategies
